

EDITORIAL

Ultimately the D-Day has come. Our departmental e-journal 'Bankura University Journal of Political Science's inaugural issue has been launched. This digital platform will not only carry writings from the reputed academicians, but research scholars and students who are our future pride, will also be encouraged to publish here. 'Political Science' or 'Politics' is a dynamic subject. That dynamism will be reflected properly in our journal. Articles will be arrayed from the topics of Political Theory to Foreign Affairs, Public Administration to the State Politics. We hope, in future, among the flock of journals, scholars will mark out ours one for its unique nature easily.

Like all of our previous events, behind the curtain, Professor Deb Narayan Bandyopadhyay, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Bankura University and Professor Subir Kumar Roy, Registrar (Addl. Charge), Bankura University inspired and helped us a lot. There is no word to express our gratitude for their continuous support towards us. I am also thankful to the Peer Reviewers and Advisory Board Members who are not only gave us their valuable consent but also promised to be with us always in spite of their busy schedule.

I cannot say 'Thank You' to my colleagues, because they are also the Editors of this journal, but I must recognize their efforts and confess that they are the actual powerhouse behind this project.

And last but not the least, as this is our first issue, lot of errors you may trace out in our e-journal. I, fully accepting the whole responsibility behind every mistake and heartfully welcome your valuable suggestions to improve ourselves.
