13.4

a) Conversion of Marks into grade letter and grade point

% of marks	Letter Grade	Grade Point
91 and above	O (Outstanding)	10
81-90	A+ (excellent)	9
71-80	A (Very Good)	8
61-70	B+ (Good)	7
51-60	B (Above Average)	6
40-50	Pass	5

b) Computation of SGPA

Example:

Course	Credit	Grade Letter	Grade Point	Credit Point
Course 1	2	A	8	2x8=16
Course 2	3	B+	7	3x7=21
Course 3	3	B	6	3x6=18
Course 4	3	B	6	3x6=18
Course 5	2		6	2x6=12
Course 6	2		6	2x6=12
Course 7	3		6	3x6=18
Course 8	2		5	2x5=10
Total	20			125
Course 9	Non credit		Satisfactory
Course 10	Non credit		Satisfactory

w.e.f. 2018-19

SGPA: $125/20=6.25$

Note:

OCPA system is like if its 75 than grade point is 7.5 (marks obtained divided by 10) or if 62 it is 6.2 or 55 it is 5.5 or 90 it is 9.0 and so on do not make it in grades of A or B or C.

Then multiply the grade with corresponding credit hours for example:

Course	Credit Hours	Grade	Grade Point
A	2+1	8.5	25.5
B	2+0	7.0	14.0
C	1+1	9.1	18.2
D	1+2	7.7	23.1
E	0+2	8.0	16.0
Total	12		96.8

Cumulative grade point (CGP) is 96.8

So cumulative grade point average (CGPA) in this semester is $CGP/\text{total credit hours registered}$

So $96.8/12=8.06666$ round up to 2nd place decimal i.e. 8.07. thus the CGPA of this semester is 8.07.

There will be similar seven OCPAs for seven semesters

The final will be overall grade point average (OGPA) which is cumulative of eight semester divided by total credit hours in the degree programme i.e. 181

FINAL REGULATIONS FOR

w.e.f.2018-19

c) Computation of CGPA----- summation of SGPA/TOTAL credit of all sem.
(Excluding non-credits)

d) Conversion of SGPA/CGPA into Percentage of Marks: Ten (10) times of SGPA/CGPA

E) Final Result / Grades Description

Semester GPA/ Programme CGPA	Alpha-Sign/Letter Grade	Result/Class Description
9.00-10.00	O (Outstanding)	Outstanding
8.00-<9.00	A+ (Excellent)	First Class Exemplary
7.00-<8.00	A (Very Good)	First Class Distinction
6.00-<7.00	B+ (Good)	First Class
5.50-<6.00	B (Above Average)	Second Class

14.	PROVISIONS FOR REVIEW:
14.1	A candidate may apply for Post-publication Review (PPR) of his/her answer-script(s) in the prescribed form and manner and a submission of fees prescribed for the purpose within the date as per notification to be issued by the Controller of Examinations at the time of publication of result. Such applications must be checked and verified by the college(s) concerned as regards to the eligibility of the candidate(s) applying for review. All such applications must be forwarded by the Principal/Teacher-in-Charge of the college concerned.
14.2	There shall be no Post-publication Review of Practical Papers, Oral examinations and Project Work/Field Work, if any.
14.3	Incomplete and faulty application is liable to be rejected without assigning any reason or without any intimation to the candidate/college concerned.
14.4	Under no circumstances fees for Post-publication Review once paid be refunded
14.5	A student may apply for review of maximum two theoretical answer (Excluding AECC) scripts in the prescribed form provided he/she has secured a minimum grade P in theoretical part of all the courses separately not asked for review of the particular semester examination.
14.6	Post-Publication Review (PPR) and Post-Publication Scrutiny (PPS) of the Same paper(s) in a Subject/Group of Subjects shall not be allowed
14.7	Finalization of Review Results: If the marks awarded by Post-Publication Review Examiner in a Paper do not exceed the original award by more than 20% of the full marks in that Paper, the Review Examiner's award will be accepted as final marks in that Paper. If the increase of marks exceeds 20% of the full marks in that Paper, the answer script will be evaluated by a third examiner (external) and the final marks will be the average of the three examiners. However, if it is found that there was error in calculating total marks of the original award, the increase of marks to the full extent will be accepted as corrected original award of the candidate.

17.3	If, however, in the judgment of the Centre-in-Charge, a candidate is found to have committed an offence of a more serious nature, e.g., impersonation, use of filthy languages, indisciplined behaviour, threatening the persons connected with the examination duties and such other activities inside and outside the examination hall/room, the Centre-in-Charge will expel the candidate debarring him/her from appearing in the examination(s) of the remaining subject(s)/paper(s) and send to the Controller of Examinations a list of such candidates along with their answer scripts and a detailed report on the circumstances leading to the action taken by the Centre-in-Charge in a separate packet for record and for placement before the Committee of Discipline for further action. In such cases as detailed in above paragraph the Committee of Discipline, duly constituted by the Vice-Chancellor may note the action, if already taken by the Centre-in-Charge, but will not lessen the penalty already given by the Centre-in-Charge. The Committee of Discipline, however, may recommend further penal action to be taken against such candidate(s). If the Centre-in-Charge, instead of taking any action against such a candidate, forward the case along with the detailed report the Committee of Discipline may take penal action as it may deem fit.
17.4	When the Centre-in-Charge expels any offending candidate from the examination hall, as referred to in the rules above, the order/notification regarding such expulsion shall forthwith be circulated in all the examination halls by the Centre-in-Charge. Such order/notification shall provide that the offending candidate shall be debarred from appearing in the remaining subject(s)/paper(s). Such order/notification should be pasted on the Notice Board and a copy of the same along with the answer scripts and other documents are to be sent to the Controller of Examinations for subsequent issuance of order/notification including order of cancellation of the entire examination of the candidate(s), to the concerned college for its implementation.
17.5	If the candidates are found to consult or talk with each other or change their scheduled seats or exchange answer-scripts/loose sheets etc. during an examination in spite of warnings by the Centre-in-Charge/room invigilator(s), the Centre-in-Charge shall report the matter in details to the University against the concerned candidates together with the relevant answer scripts for placement before the Committee of Discipline.

17.6	An examiner may forward to the Controller of Examinations of the University through the chairperson of the concerned examination or to the Controller of Examination directly if there is no chairperson in the concerned subject an explanatory report along with the relevant answer script(s) of the candidate(s) for placement of the same before the Committee of Discipline if, in his/her judgment, the candidate/candidates has/have adopted unfair means in answering questions
17.7	If an examinee uses filthy languages against the Centre-in-Charge/Invigilators or Convener/Member(s) of the Visiting Teams or any person connected with the examination or resorts to indiscipline behaviour inside or outside the examination hall or undertakes any unfair means or violates the instructions for the examinees, the Centre-in-Charge may send his/her answer-script of that paper along with a report from the Invigilator(s) with his comment, if any. However, in such case, the examinee will be allowed to sit for the examination in the remaining paper(s)/subject(s).
17.8	Non-submission of scripts - If an examinee appears at the examination but does not submit his/her answer-script, the matter should be noted in the Attendance Sheet. A diary should be lodged on the day with the local police station. A report along with a copy of the said Diary and a statement from the Invigilator of the concerned examination hall must be sent by the Centre-in-Charge to the Controller of Examinations.
17.9	Torn scripts - In case of a script being willfully torn by a candidate, the fact should be noted in the Attendance Sheet(s) and a report should be sent by the Centre-in-Charge to the Controller of Examinations in a separate packet along with the torn script and a statement from the Invigilator of the concerned examination hall stating the circumstances leading to the incident.
17.10	Report on R.A. cases from any quarter should always be supported by documentary evidence or statement of the reporting concerned authority. Without such documentary evidence/statements disposal of the matter cannot be taken up.
17.11	On receipt of the report of malpractice in the examination, as referred to in above the University will direct the concerned candidate to appear before the
